1. About Faculty of Education

The Faculty of Education, University of Delhi, earlier known as the Central Institute of Education (CIE), was perhaps the first major institute of professional learning and research in Education that was established just after independence. The first Prime Minister of India, Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru and his Education Minister, Maulana Abdul Kalam Azad took considerable interest in the establishment of CIE in 1947 and its activities and progress in those early years. Maulana Azad visualized the function of CIE not merely to “turn out teachers who will be model teachers”, but to evolve into “a research centre for solving new educational problems of the country”. Maulana envisioned that CIE would grow into “a beacon light for teacher training institutes of the country”. Over these past decades, CIE has attempted to work towards this vision. Moreover, at this juncture, when the nation has introduced the Right to Education (RTE) Act and a National Curricular Framework for Teacher Education (NCFTE), but is grappling with how it will prepare a vast cadre of teachers who can ensure quality with equity, CIE will need to brace itself to address this challenge.

Recognised as an Institute of Advanced Studies in Education (IASE) and having established the Maulana Azad Centre for Elementary and Social Education (MACESE), CIE has developed and conducted several academic programmes.

CIE offers the following academic programmes:

1. A full-time professional teacher education programme of the duration of two academic years, after graduate or post-graduate studies, leading to a degree in Bachelor of Education (B.Ed.). Besides CIE, this programme is also offered at two affiliated colleges of University of Delhi – Maharshi Valmiki College of Education, and Shyama Prasad Mukherji College for Women.
2. A full time professional teacher education programme for the duration of two academic years, leading to a Bachelor of Special Education (Mental Retardation) degree. This course is offered at Lady Irwin College, University of Delhi.
3. A full time professional teacher education programme for the duration of two academic years, leading to a Bachelor of Special Education (Visual Impairment) degree. This course is offered at Durgabai Deshmukh College, University of Delhi.
4. A full-time professional programme of four years, after 12 years of schooling, in Elementary Teacher Education, leading to a Bachelor of Elementary Education (B.El.Ed.) degree. This programme is offered at eight affiliated women’s colleges of University of Delhi.
5. A full-time advanced programme in Education of the duration of two academic years leading to a Master of Education (M.Ed.) degree.

2. About the Programme

2.1. Bachelor of Elementary Education Programme

The Bachelor of Elementary Education (B.El.Ed.) programme is a four-year integrated professional degree programme of Elementary Teacher Education offered after the senior secondary (class XII) stage of school. This is a bilingual programme, conceptualized by the Maulana Azad Centre for Elementary and Social Education (MACESE) of the Department of Education, University of Delhi. Launched in the academic year 1994-95, the programme was an attempt towards fulfilling the need for professionally qualified elementary school teachers. B.El.Ed. is designed to integrate the study of subject knowledge, human development, pedagogical knowledge and communication skills. Both professional and academic options are available to the students who graduate with a B.El.Ed. degree.

The introduction of the B.El.Ed. Programme in undergraduate colleges of University of Delhi marks a move towards creation of a cadre of Elementary Education professionals- a long awaited promise, beginning with the conception of the Central Institute of Education in 1947. Through the B.El.Ed Programme, concerns of elementary education have been integrated into the University system. It has also upgraded the professional status of the elementary school teacher by providing a university degree for elementary education. At present, the programme is being offered in eight women colleges of the University of Delhi. The regulations, norms and standards for the B.El.Ed Programme were first notified by the NCTE in the Gazette of India on 20th March 1999. The latest notification applicable to the programme is dated November 2014.

2.2.B.El.Ed. Graduates

The B.El.Ed Programme aims to produce graduates of high caliber in the field of elementary teacher education. The programme is intensive and focused to prepare teachers by providing a supportive and stimulating environment. The programme is offered by select undergraduate colleges of University of Delhi. Over 6000 students have already graduated from these colleges since 1998. A good number of them have been placed in government and private schools as professionally qualified elementary school teachers. Others are pursuing post-graduate studies and research in disciplines like education, linguistics, psychology, languages, history, social work, sociology, mathematics, environmental studies and political science. Many B.El.Ed graduates are pursuing research in educational studies in Central Universities and some of them are working as teacher educators. Given below are some of the professional and academic options available for the B.El.Ed graduates:

- Teaching in elementary schools (Classes I to VIII): B.El.Ed graduates are eligible for appointment in MCD, NDMC, Sarvodaya Vidyalayas in Delhi, Kendriya Vidyalayas and Navodaya Vidyalayas all across India and also in private schools.

2.3. B.El.Ed. Faculty and Academic Support

The B.El.Ed Programme offers an opportunity for students to interact and learn from scholars and faculty from diverse disciplines of education, psychology, sociology, linguistics, social sciences, biological and natural science, mathematical sciences and the languages. The liberal option courses are taught by faculty drawn from different departments of each college. However, the core elementary education faculty has a major orientation towards interdisciplinary teaching. In addition, colleges draw upon the expertise of professionals outside the University for specialized Practicum Courses such as theatre, story-telling and self development. The Programme continues to be nurtured with academic and resource support from the Department of Education through seminars, public lectures and other faculty development programmes.

2.4. Programme of Study

The Programme offers both compulsory and optional theory papers; compulsory practicum courses and a comprehensive school internship experience. The programme is bilingual and classroom discussions are conducted in both English and Hindi language. Students have the option to write assignments as well as examinations in either English or Hindi. The different areas of study are as follows:

2.4.1. Theory Courses

The student-teacher is expected to study nineteen (19) theory courses during the four-year programme of study. Theory courses include study through projects and related field work. The total weightage of the theory courses in the B.El.Ed. Programme is 1250 marks out of an aggregate of 2200 marks.

Foundation Courses

Foundation courses offer an in-depth study of the process of child development and learning; how the education of children is influenced by the social, political, economic and cultural contexts in which they grow; techniques and processes of school organisation and management; educational theory, issues and concepts specific to elementary education. In addition to developing theoretical constructs and frameworks of analysis, these courses also aim to cultivate skills to build relationships and to communicate as teachers.

Core Courses

Core courses offer the student-teacher an opportunity to reconstruct concepts learnt in school and to integrate them within a multi-disciplinary perspective. These also form the foundation for pedagogy courses.

Pedagogy Courses

Pedagogy courses provide a study of pedagogical theory to develop skills specific to the teaching of young children. While developing perspectives in pedagogy, student-teachers also learn methodologies of teaching specific knowledge areas.

Liberal Courses

Liberal courses offer studies in a specific discipline with academic rigour. They are designed to enrich the knowledge base, to allow for further study in the discipline and in the pedagogies in which student-teachers opt to specialize.

Specialized Courses in Education

The optional courses offered in the fourth year provide specialized support to the student teacher.

2.4.2. Practicum Courses

These courses are designed to allow a variety of experiences with children within and outside the elementary school. In addition, student-teachers acquire a wide range of professional skills including drama, craft, developing curricular material, classroom management, systematic observations, documentation and evaluation. Practicum courses carry a total weightage of 950 marks over the four years of study.

Performing and Fine Arts, Crafts and Physical Education

These are integrated into the B.El.Ed curriculum in the same spirit as they should be in the elementary school curriculum. They enable the student-teachers to experience and understand the learning process in a holistic manner, rather than confining it to the 'cognitive' domain.

School Contact Programme

This establishes the first contact of student-teachers with children. While initiating contact with elementary schools, student-teachers engage with issues of planning and organizing creative activities for children within the school. They also explore ways of organizing meaningful interaction with children outside the school. Student-teachers get the opportunity to develop the ability to relate, communicate and develop a positive attitude towards children and teaching.

Observing Children

This practicum is designed to help establish a crucial link between theoretical concepts and ground realities. Student-teachers engage with systematic observation and study of children in different settings.

Self-Development Workshops

Students sharpen their abilities and learn to be critical and reflective through a process of self reflection and analysis.

Storytelling and Children's Literature

Students understand the significance of children's literature and storytelling in the teaching learning process. They also explore various genres of children's literature and learn different techniques of storytelling. They build up a resource of stories and children's literature for use in the teaching-learning process.

Classroom Management and Material Development

This practicum begins with systematic observations and analysis of pedagogic practices in conventional and innovative settings. The student-teacher is facilitated to evolve pedagogic practices that address crucial concerns of classroom management, design and choice of activities, material development and evaluation.

School Internship

Internship in schools forms a major component of the fourth year of the B.El.Ed. programme. Student interns actively engage in teaching elementary school children. Systematic feedback and evaluation is provided by supervisors. Functioning as regular teachers, the interns attempt to translate their knowledge-base and professional skills into reflective classroom practice.

Project Work

Student-teachers are required to take up projects based on themes arising out of their school experiences. This enables them to acquire basic research skills of systematic observation, documentation and analysis.

Tutorials and colloquia

An integral part of the B.El.Ed. programme, tutorials help student-teachers to build connections between theory, observations and classroom teaching. Student-teachers are expected to participate in discussions in the classroom. Through various activities, students are exposed to various important aspects of teaching and learning. Colloquia comprise different activities and student teacher interactions, strengthening the knowledge base about teaching children. The major components which students are expected to engage with are story-telling and children's literature, performing and fine arts, designing a resource room and building on social experiences. Colloquia are an integral part of the B.El.Ed.

Academic Enrichment Activities

Seminars and workshops are an integral part of the programme of study. They offer student teachers the opportunity to interact with faculty of diverse disciplines from within and outside the college.

2.5. Framework for Assessment and Grant of the Degree

At the end of each academic year, Annual Examination is conducted in all the theory courses taught during that particular year. 30% weightage is given to internal assessment in the theory courses. Practicum courses are assessed internally. Students have the option to write the examination in either Hindi or in English. The minimum marks required to pass the examination is 40% in each theory paper, 45% in the written paper plus internal assessment, 50% in all practicum courses taken together and 50% in the overall aggregate for each year. Candidates obtaining less than 50% aggregate in the practicums taken together will not be allowed to appear in the Annual Examination.
