Dear M.Ed. Second Year Students,

I hope you are well and doing your best to keep up with your studies and assignment even in these difficult times.

The date now for your submission of dissertation is June 6, 2020. You will receive a further mail by the department regarding the procedure of submission because it will be online this year. You are advised to immediately (by tomorrow) contact your supervisors and discuss the issues related to your dissertation with them. Your supervisors will guide you through the process because this year is unusual and many processes appear different from past practices.

Best wishes.

Prof. Shobha Sinha
Head and Dean
