

National Webinar Series on Teacher Education

The field of Teacher Education underwent structural and curricular changes in the last decade due to socio-political, economic and regulatory changes. It brought focus on several new thrust areas and changes in emphasis in various curricular components and practices in pre-service teacher education as well as Continuous Professional Development of educational practitioners. Knowledge and Curriculum, Gender in the context of school and society, Inclusive education, courses on Enhancing Professional Capacities are some of the new thrust areas in pre-service teacher education. Practices such as school Leadership, Online Continuous Professional Development, Reflective teaching practice are also strongly emphasized.

In this context, an Online Webinar series is planned to bring out the perspectives of experts, practitioners, researchers and Masters, students on Major Themes in Teacher Education and its relation to the recent changes.

Call for papers

Papers are invited from Teacher Educators, Researchers and Practitioners for the Webinar Series. The submissions may include research based/ perspective papers, policy analysis on various aspects of teacher education. The soft copy of the paper with abstract must be sent by email to teachereducationcie@gmail.com by 28th February 2021.

The selected papers for webinar presentation will be communicated by 2nd March, 2021. The first page of the paper should include the following details: Name, Designation, Affiliating Institution (if any), Address for correspondence, contact no, and email id.

Registration and Dates of Webinar

The Webinar series of invited speakers will begin in the last week of February. The webinar presentations of the papers received from teacher educators, researchers and practitioners will be scheduled in first and second week of March, 2021. The Webinar series will be scheduled during the second half of the day.

The link for each session of the Webinar series will be sent to your email id & WhatsApp number that you mention in the registration form.

Those who like to present/participate in the event may kindly register before 24th February, 2021. The link for registration is given below.

REGISTRATION

Important Days

Last date for Registration	24th February, 2021
Last date for submission of papers	28th February, 2021
Intimation for acceptance of paper will be communicated on	2nd March, 2021
Dates of Webinar Series	Notified Soon...